

SCHOOL of
SOCIAL WORK

Group Work Continuing Education Series

Join us for a dynamic new continuing education series that will prepare you to work with groups in just about any setting. These interactive sessions, led by Loyola's skilled, engaging faculty members, will provide both foundational and advanced knowledge in the application of this indispensable modality.

Fees per session: General Admission: $80, Alumni and Field Instructors: $65, Students: $10
20% discount if enrolled in 3 or more sessions

To register, visit: www.luc.edu/ssw/groupwork

February 19th, 9:00am-12:00pm | 3 CEUs

Group Work Essentials: Engaging, Empowering, and Facilitating Effective Groups

Joyce Webster, MSW, LCSW

February 26th, 1:00pm-4:00pm | 3 CEUs

Understanding and Dealing with Challenging Dynamics in Groups:
Conflict, Scapegoating, Monopolizing, and Silence

Ann Bergart, PhD, LCSW

March 5th, 3:30pm-5:30pm | 2 CEUs

Using Activities in Task and Treatment Groups

Barney Straus, LCSW

March 12th, 9:00am-12:00pm | 3 CEUs

Beyond "How Do You Feel?": Using Group Work Activities with Children and Adolescents to Build Connection and Engagement

Karen Roach, LCSW, NMT

March 19th, 9:00am-12:00pm | 3 CEUs

Group Work with Involuntary and Resistant Clients

Kay Levin, PhD, LCSW

March 26th, 9:00am-12:00pm | 3 CEUs

Group Work Supervision:
Supervising Staff and Students Around Group Work Issues

Al Ross, LCSW