Description:

The #MeToo movement acts as a reminder of the power in shared experiences. The simple words, "Me too" suggests understanding, support, and hope. Multiple-Family Group Therapy harnesses the experience and wisdom of families working together to overcome obstacles and thrive. Join us in an exploration of this treatment modality, from conceptualization to in-vivo techniques.

Target Audience:

This workshop benefits anyone in the field of human services who is committed to supporting families on their journey to wholeness.

Learning Objectives:

Upon completion of this presentation, participants will be able to:

1. Develop a multiple-family group intervention.
2. Facilitate an MFG using techniques and strategies from strategic, systems, and structural family therapy models.

Learning methods:

- Interaction and discussion
- Role-play
- Didactic presentation
